- Day 1 Fly from London to Montevideo, Uruguay (regional and premium class flights may be available on request*)
- Day 2 Montevideo, Uruguay
 Upon arrival, transfer to a hotel† for your overnight stay
- Day 3 Montevideo, Uruguay
 Transfer to the port and embark the brand new MS Fridtjof Nansen for your 15 night voyage during her maiden season
- Day 4 - Relaxing at sea
Day 5 Enjoy lectures from the expedition team
- Day 6 Puerto Madryn, Argentina
 The first highlight on this expedition is a visit to the Valdez Peninsula, a nature reserve that has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This oddly shaped peninsula is home to some of the country's most dramatic wildlife habitats, with elephant seals, Magellan penguins, the southern right whale and a great variety of birds
- Day 7 Relaxing at sea
- Day 8 - Falkland Islands
Day 10 A starkly contrasting experience awaits on the Falklands. Sheep graze next to penguin colonies in the countryside, while red English buses trundle by cosy pubs in the town. New Island is an adorable inlet, with sandy white beaches and turquoise waters. It could easily be mistaken for a Caribbean island, if the sun was a little stronger. Enjoy hikes in the hills or along the coast and kayak in the clear waters

Day 11 - Crossing the Drake Passage

Day 12 The air becomes crisper and colder as you cross the Antarctic Convergence. From deck, you might start seeing icebergs in the water and whales as well

Day 13 - Antarctica

Day 15 One of the most remote areas of the world, the endless white horizons are full of close encounters with wildlife, glaciers and spectacular scenery. Join the expedition team and explore Antarctica with landings that take you up close to thousands of penguins with no natural fear of man. You might visit Half Moon Island, Yankee Harbour, Cuverville Island and Paradise Harbour, so named for the shelter it offered whalers during fierce Antarctic storms

Day 16 - Crossing the Drake Passage

Day 17 After exhilarating days in Antarctica and the Falklands, the final days on board are spent crossing the Drake Passage. Spend time with family, old friends, new friends and the expedition team, and enjoy the farewell dinner on the last evening

Day 18 Ushuaia, Argentina

Disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight to Buenos Aires. Upon arrival, transfer to a hotel† for your two night stay

*Expedition activities are optional and pre-bookable excursions are at a supplement and must be booked at least 28 days prior to departure. # QUEEN ELIZABETH'S MAIDEN VOYAGE FROM ALASKA TO SAN FRANCISCO

FEATURING INDEPENDENCE DAY 2019
IN SAN FRANCISCO

INDEPENDENCE DAY 2019 IN SAN FRANCISCO

Should American pride be exhibited in one day,
it would be 4th July.

This is the date when, in 1776, the Declaration of Independence came into existence. Although it was only the beginning of the Revolutionary War between 13 colonies and the British Empire, the American settlers' hearts had already risen with hope.

On 4th July, the USA is painted red, white and blue, because the colours of the American flag are spread in fashion and decorations. The morning welcomes joyful parades whilst the evening is reserved for loud concerts and fireworks. This exceptional voyage, only available to book with ROL Cruise, enables you to attend the celebrations of the 2019 Independence Day in San Francisco where you can enjoy a stunning fireworks display over the bay and dance the night away to live music!

Behind the Scenes of the TV Advert filming

Star Wars - The Last Jedi is not the only serial blockbuster hitting screens this winter. January will see ROL Cruise return to TV screens by way of our 4th TV advert!

Last year's advert, shot on location in Cyprus, focused on introducing newly re-branded 'ROL Cruise' (previously Reader Offers Ltd) to the public and aimed to help new customers understand who we are and the benefits of booking a cruise holiday with us.

Working closely with our marketing agency, our objective was to create an advert that would build upon last years' branding campaign, whilst giving viewers a more in-depth understanding of how our customers will Experience the Difference when booking with ROL Cruise. After several discussions we settled on a concept that would see the return of ROL Cruise® and Cruise Miles Ambassador Jennie Bond. Jennie featured in our first and second TV adverts in 2012 and 2013 and has remained an Ambassador for ROL Cruise ever since – and with interest in the Royal Family at an almost all time high, the timing could not have been better to have Jennie as the face of our commercial.

The advert would contain a mixture of live action, shot on location with Jennie, as well as destination based videos created by our cruise line partners.

Unfortunately for us, and the film crew alike, this year's setting for the live action was not quite as warm or as far-flung as Larnaca where we filmed last year. Nevertheless, Ranscombe Manor, a 16th century house set in 32 acres in the beautiful village of Kingsbridge in Torquay, Devon, provided a beautiful backdrop for filming.

Nine hours, numerous takes, many different lighting and camera angles later we'd managed to capture all of the live action shots for the advert – with Jennie then having to rush straight off to catch a train to London for an early start the next morning (all in a day's work for a TV presenter!).

Nine hours, numerous takes, different lighting and camera angles

---

Although I've been on several TV shoots, it never ceases to amaze me the amount of equipment, people and time it takes just to capture 30 seconds of footage, it's no wonder feature films spend millions of pounds and months on end filming their epic spectacles.

The following weeks were spent in the editing suites, marrying the correct takes with the cruise line footage, adding graphics, music and captions and then waiting for the all-important approval from the broadcast authority Clearcast, without whom an advert cannot be aired on commercial television.

It's fair to say that all of the hard work has paid off and we're extremely proud of the finished advert which gets its premier on the 6th January across both terrestrial and satellite TV channels. All that's left to do now is sit back, get the popcorn ready and enjoy the advert.

YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Mumbai (formerly Bombay), India

Mumbai has to be seen to be believed. Your senses will be in overdrive, catching the scent of spices on the air, the honking of horns and the roar of mopeds, the rich weave of colourful fabrics on market stalls. You will be shown a city where modern India meets old India, where high-rise towers shade colourful street markets, commercial districts harbour ancient temples and ultra-cool style meets traditional customs

Dubai, U.A.E.

If you have never been to Dubai, it's time to prepare for a whole new experience. One of the seven emirates that make up the U.A.E. it is a sparkling jewel in the middle-eastern crown. Marvel at the ambitious and awe inspiring architectural projects, from the palm tree shaped islands that stretch into the Arabian Sea to the Burj al Khalif – the tallest building in the world

Muscat, Oman

The breathtaking capital of Oman will open your mind and steal your heart. When you cruise into this Arabian dream you'll be seduced by its richness and warmth. Oman is not competing with its flamboyant Arabian neighbours to build ever taller buildings and so retains its charm in its arabesque architecture. Marvel at the majestic Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, the Riyam Monument, the National Museum of Oman and the modern Royal Opera House

TOURING THE GOLDEN TRIANGLE

One phone rings, then another and another. Any minute mine will go off... and there it is. Our tour leader is taking no chances that anyone will oversleep and miss the sunrise tour to the Taj Mahal.

By 5.45am we are at the entrance to what is surely the greatest monument to love ever built and it is buzzing.

Just for once, I am not on a cruise but rather touring India's Golden Triangle, a journey from Delhi to Agra, Jaipur and back that ticks off iconic sights such as the Taj Mahal, bazaars and mosques in Delhi and the Amber Fort in Jaipur, and is the perfect addition to cruises starting or ending in the region.

So perfect, in fact, that ROL Cruise has a couple of exclusive holidays that do just that. If you're quick, there's a six night Golden Triangle tour at the start of a Silversea cruise from Mumbai to Dubai in April 2018. Alternatively, hang on until February 2019 for the holiday pairing the Golden Triangle with a Celebrity Cruises® voyage from Abu Dhabi that I mentioned in my column last month.

If a river cruise appeals more, ROL also has holidays combining the Golden Triangle with a Uniworld voyage on the Ganges on multiple dates this year.

Delhi, the start point of the tour, is a vast city that's home to some 23 million people and full of contrasts, from gleaming high-rise call centres to elegant colonial buildings and scruffy street markets. Lutyens Delhi, built by the British when they moved their capital from Calcutta (now Kolkata) in 1911, has wide boulevards and monumental buildings; Chandri Chowk in Old Delhi, on the other hand, is a rabbit warren of streets crammed with bikes and people, and lined with stores selling colourful saris, aromatic spices and delicious-smelling street food.

"See all the wires", our guide Sunil said, pointing to the tangle of electricity cables outside the shops. "If you lose power at home you call the electric company. If we lose power, we check next door."

We inched our way through Chandri Chowk on rickshaws (think bicycle-powered taxis), stopped at the India Gate, built to remember the Indians who died fighting in the First World War and 1971 Bangladesh War of Independence, and visited the tomb of Mughal Emperor Humayun on which the Taj Mahal is modelled. We also stopped at Raj Ghat, where Mahatma Gandhi was cremated, and visited Gurudwara Bangla Sahib, a Sikh place of worship, where each day volunteers prepare lunch for anyone, rich or poor, who wants to come and eat there.

Amber Fort, Jaipur

It takes about three-and-a-half hours to drive from Delhi to Agra on the motorway; once there we had a sneak peak of the Taj Mahal from the back, got stuck in a traffic jam caused by three cows that had decided to go for a stroll along the 'fast' lane of the road, had dinner in a local restaurant and turned in early in readiness for the 5am alarm next morning.

It is a very early start but well worth the effort. Even the crowds of people could not detract from the sheer beauty of this ivory-white mausoleum built between 1631 and 1653 by Shah Jahan in honour of his favourite wife. She died aged 38 giving birth to her 14th child, so it was a true labour of love in every sense of the word, except of course he had his minions to do the labouring. Some 20,000 of them apparently worked day and night to get it finished.

After a late breakfast back at the hotel, we were on the road again, this time heading for the pink city of Jaipur, about four hours drive away. I always assumed it got that moniker due to the colour of the local stone. In fact, the city was painted pink by the then maharaja for a state visit by the future King Edward VII in 1876 (pink means welcome in Hindi) and the name stuck.

The main attraction is the Amber Fortress, a spectacular-looking place in the hills above the town that you can walk or drive up to, but I arrived as every Maharani should – on the back of an elephant.

She was called Sonja, aged 36 and so slow I wondered if she'd ever make it to the top. Thank goodness she did because the palace is really impressive, with vast courtyards, a beautiful room decorated with thousands of mirrored tiles and spectacular views over the rocky landscape.

Back at street level, I joined friends for a tuk-tuk ride around the city – great fun but you need nerves of steel – and toured the City Palace, where there are two 900-gallon water jugs that Maharaja Sawai Madho Singh II filled with Ganges water and took to England for the coronation of Edward VII to get his own back on the king, who refused to drink the local water when he was in India.

THE WORLD'S MOST LUXURIOUS RIVER CRUISES

◦ SPACE & LUXURY

Newly renovated to exceptional standards, Scenic Space-Ships in southern France boast new One-Bedroom Royal Owner's Suites, the largest and most spacious on any European river cruise ship.

Their French Space-Ships have been designed with fewer suites to create more space and provide a more luxurious feel. Opulent flourishes and innovative technologies make each suite a private sanctuary for you to relax in at the end of a day of discovery.

◦ CULINARY EXCELLENCE

Scenic's speciality dining venue, L'Amour, provides five courses of fine French dining, paired with local wines from the region's best wineries. Serving up to 32 guests at a time, L'Amour's intimate culinary experience is one that every guest can experience during their time on board.

◦ SCENIC CULINAIRE

Scenic have transformed one of their dining venues into a private cooking space where you can participate in a series of cooking classes, taught by experts. Using the finest, locally sourced ingredients, Scenic Culinaire boasts its very own cheese and wine cellar, as well as a live camera with screen, so you won't miss a single drizzle or slice as the chef creates recipes you'll simply adore.

AUSTRIAN APPLE STRUDEL

PREP TIME - 20 mins

COOK TIME - 1 hr 20 mins

SERVES 6

This beautiful pastry is filled with the comforting flavours of apple, nuts, raisins and cinnamon and this might become your new favourite dessert!

Ingredients

340g (12 oz) self-raising flour

170g (6 oz) margarine

3 tbsp ice-cold water

2 cooking apples – peeled, cored
and sliced

55g (2 oz) blanched almonds,
chopped

55g (2 oz) dates, chopped

85g (3 oz) raisins

2 tbsp caster sugar

1 tsp ground cinnamon

Icing sugar to dust

Method

- Preheat the oven to 190°C / Gas 5.
- Place the flour in a bowl and rub in margarine with your fingertips until it resembles breadcrumbs. Add three tbsp ice-cold water and mix to form a firm dough.
- Turn onto a floured board and knead lightly.
Roll out pastry to make a 38 x 38cm square.
- Spread the apples evenly on the pastry, leaving a 2.5cm border all the way around. Spread the almonds and dates over the apples, then sprinkle on the raisins, sugar and cinnamon.
- Brush the edges of the pastry with water. Fold the borders on two opposite sides and roll up in a Swiss roll fashion. Wrap loosely in foil and place on a baking tray.
- Bake in the centre of the preheated oven for one hour.
Open the foil to expose the roll and cook an additional 20 minutes. Remove from the oven, cool and sprinkle with icing sugar.
