AWTE NOMINATES ROL CRUISE CHAIRMAN JEREMY DICKINSON FOR AMBASSADOR AWARD

We are delighted to announce that AWTE, the Association of Women Travel Executives, has nominated ROL Cruise Chairman, Jeremy Dickinson for their 2018 Ambassador Award.

The AWTE Ambassador award is awarded to a male colleague in the travel industry who actively encourages, enables and supports women in business, allowing them to reach their potential within the company and impact the business, or the industry, with their support.

Jeremy adopted a more strategic role as Chairman earlier this year with Sarah Wikevand being promoted to MD, where she will drive cruise sales growth and cruise partnerships still further. There are an additional two internal facing MD positions created, namely Ellie Fielder and Rosie Weir.

Jeremy believes ROL Cruise is bucking the trend on the gender pay gap, and is passionate about supporting women.

Good luck Jeremy!

IONA'S MAIDEN VOYAGE OF THE NORWEGIAN FJORDS FROM ONLY £949pp

Conservatory Mini Suite

The Glass House

SkyDome

THE ULTIMATE WAY TO SEE THE NORWEGIAN FJORDS

Iona begins her inaugural season in this incredible region. Departing from Southampton, you'll experience the best of all worlds. Iona comes into her own as she travels through the fjords.

It takes time to look this good. In fact, it was a succession of ice ages over many millennia that shaped Norway's fjords into the spectacular landscape you see today. Clear, blue waters sparkle surrounded by towering cliffs, while small villages and working farms cling to the mountainsides. Awe-inspiring national parks abound with tumbling waterfalls, crystal-clear rivers and breathtaking viewing points across myriad mountain, fjord and glacier landscapes. The Norwegian fjords are truly like nowhere else on Earth.

IONA HIGHLIGHTS

Conservatory Mini Suites

The Conservatory Mini-Suite is an exciting new addition to the choice of accommodation. Bring the outdoors in with a personal and versatile conservatory-style room that forms an extension to the suite. This space, which includes stylish L-shaped seating, can be closed off or left open according to the time of day or mood.

The Glass House

Created by award-winning wine expert and P&O Cruises Food Hero Olly Smith, The Glass House is for lovers of fine wine and great food. The premium wine bar boasts an impressive wine list curated by Olly and offers a sophisticated environment to enjoy

Dining

There is an exciting array of options combining brand-new dining and drinking concepts with much-loved signature venues to give new meaning to the word 'choice'. With 29 different venues to choose from, there's something for everyone!

SkyDome

A major new entertainment venue called SkyDome will be one of Iona's star attractions. Set on decks 16 and 17 and featuring an impressive roof and a pool with a retractable stage, it offers a unique space whatever the weather and the time of day.

On Sale dates are tiered, first day on general sale is 12th September 2018. ±Savings are based on two adults sharing. New P&O Cruises guests will save 5%, as applied to advertised prices. not guaranteed.

Five Unforgettable Adventures

1. Make a splash

Fresh air in your lungs, sunshine on your skin, the feeling of your paddle gently gliding through crystal-clear waters... kayaking through Norway's fjords is equal parts peaceful and exhilarating*

2. Hike up high

Walking in Norway's spectacular landscapes is an almost spiritual experience. Luckily, you're never far from breathtaking trails that will take you up, up and away

3. Stride out on a Nordic walk

This is no stroll in the park – Nordic walking is a fun, high-energy activity that'll get your blood pumping as you see the sights. It's popular the world over, but where better to learn or hone your technique than in the beautiful Norwegian countryside?

4. Take the highs with the lows

As the old saying goes, what goes up must come down. The adage rings particularly true in the Norwegian fjords, where luckily, both ascent and descent are a whole lot of fun

5. Get your heart racing on a river-rafting ride

Norway is famous for its fjords and lakes, but its beautiful rivers deserve equal attention. To explore them from a unique (and thrilling) perspective, why not embark on a fun, fast-paced rafting adventure?

Five Unforgettable Natural Wonders

1. Be dazzled by the fjords

With breathtaking scenery at every turn, there's no denying the fjords are the stars of the show. Formed by a succession of ice ages, journeying into their pure and dazzling heart is a once-in-a-lifetime experience. And what better way to take them in than up close and personal by ship?

2. Get up close to a glacier

Come face to face with Norway's mighty glaciers – the same powerful forces that carved out the country's fjords many millennia ago

3. Wonder at waterfalls

Don't go chasing waterfalls when we've got some of Norway's finest ready and waiting for you. These waterfalls are stunning year-round, but in May and June they're at their best as snowmelt adds to the volume of water

4. Soak up the lakeside serenity

Norway's purity is illustrated by its abundance of lakes that are perfect for swimming, fishing, boating, or simply sitting back and soaking it all in.

5. Get back to nature

The drama of Norway's wild fjordic landscapes is softened by the lush greens of forests and pretty pastures that teem with wildlife and flowers.

- Day 1 Fly from London to Cancun, Mexico
Upon arrival, transfer to the port in Cozumel and embark Magellan for your 10 night voyage
- Day 2 Belize City, Belize
For such a small country, Belize punches above its weight when it comes to attractions and Belize City is the key jumping off point from which to explore. The Museum of Belize was Her Majesty's Prison when the area was a British colony. St. John's Cathedral, the oldest Anglican Cathedral in Central America, is built solely with bricks which were once ship's ballast, and the newest Belize landmark, the Belize Sign, is a perfect photo
- Day 3 Roatan, Honduras
This remote isle, the largest of the Bay Islands, is famed for its colourful history as a former pirate haunt. Today, tourists are drawn by the beautiful sandy beaches and pristine coral reefs that make Roatan a magnet for divers and snorkellers
- Day 5 Puerto Limón, Costa Rica
The port city of Puerto Limón is the gateway to the adventurous attractions of Costa Rica which boasts one of the world's greatest collections of biologically diverse habitats. More like a tropical Eden, this Central American nation serves up dramatic waterfalls, lush rainforest and a landscape scattered with volcanoes, along with an exotic plethora of wildlife
- Day 6 Full transit of the Panama Canal
Transit the 48 mile long Panama Canal through sets of locks and Gatun Lake

- Day 9 Puerto Quetzal, Guatemala
Puerto Quetzal is steeped in Mayan history so why not embark on a cultural journey discovering ancient Mayan ruins and the ancient city of Tikal. If you are looking to relax and unwind, then spend the day lounging on idyllic sands as Puerto Quetzal boasts some of the finest beaches in the area
- Day 11 Acapulco, Mexico

Blue Horizons | October 2018 29

A WALK ON THE WILD SIDE

Brent Dixon's bear advice is ringing in my ears as I join our guide, Mary-Jo, for a nature hike through the Tongass National Park. "Always travel in a group and don't be the slowest," he told a packed theatre on Celebrity Solstice[®]. I am with eight others, so that's one tick, and looking around, I reckon I'll outrun most of them. Phew.

I'm joking of course, and so was Brent, a scientist and wildlife expert who was lecturing on a Celebrity Solstice[®] cruise I did this summer in Alaska. Well it was partly a joke. His very important point was that while we might all be hoping to see bears on this cruise, they are wild animals, can be dangerous, and we would be invading their territory so respect and caution was paramount.

The message certainly got through to a few of us. Chatting to a couple at dinner that evening, we decided that rather than seeing the real thing on the Tongass hike the following day, we'd be happy with some bear poo and scratches on the trees.

So it was smiles all round when Mary-Jo spotted a little offering on the path in front of us. "That's a bear," she said, pointing with her stick, which she carried to wave menacingly in case we encountered one.

The tour, one of three excursions in Alaska that adventurer and broadcaster Ben Fogle has endorsed as 'Great Adventures' for Celebrity Cruises[®], proved an excellent choice. Mary-Jo was a walking encyclopaedia when it came to the forest, showing us skunk cabbage (bears make a bee-line for its yellow flowers when they come out of hibernation as they act as a laxative), various berries and lichopodium, a type of lichen that you can ignite when it's thrown in the air. Goodness knows how anyone ever educational, which was quite a feat!). Still to come were the state capital of Juneau and Skagway, a small town that owes its existence to the Alaska gold rush and still survives on tales from those wild days.

“You should have been here last week. It was too hot for me,” our driver told us as we left Ketchikan and headed out to the Tongass forest to meet Mary-Jo. Given the grey skies and a rain-o-meter in Ketchikan celebrating the town’s 12.5 feet of precipitation a year, I suspect he was joking.

That evening I joined a handful of passengers on deck watching for whales as we cruised through Snow Passage, an area popular with cetaceans (tally: three humpbacks and one unknown) and was up with the larks next morning for a scenic cruise along the Endicott Arm (another name for a fjord) to the Dawes Glacier, a massive piece of you pick the one that suits. If you fancy seeing Brent in action, they can check with Celebrity’s in-house team to find out when he is on board.

Once we reached Dawes Glacier the captain turned Solstice 360° degrees so everyone got a view. And that was all before breakfast! By lunchtime we were tying up in Juneau and an hour later I was off on my next Ben Fogle Grand Adventure, this time a boat trip in Auke Bay in search of whales.

The town is the only US state capital that cannot be reached by road, it has the world’s smallest Costco and is home to almost as many eagles as people (about 30,000). It is also a whale-watchers’ paradise with some 1,500 cetaceans known to frequent its waters and even recorded in a book along with pictures of their flukes, which are apparently as individual as our fingerprints. So when I snapped a picture of a whale diving, our guide Becca was able to

Flame's fluke

Chilkoot Inlet, Skagway

Dawes Glacier

Sea lions

discovered that, but it is still used for special effects by magicians and film makers.

Tongass National Park, part of the largest temperate rainforest in the world, is just outside Ketchikan, which was our first stop on the cruise. We had set sail from an unexpectedly sunny Seattle, enjoyed blue skies and Brent Nixon’s shows about bears and whales during a day at sea (he was engaging, entertaining and ice some half a mile wide, 175 feet above the water line and 500 feet below.

If you have never booked a stateroom with a balcony, this is the cruise to start. The liquid sunshine was falling heavily as we sailed along Endicott Arm but, I not only stayed dry while enjoying the scenery from my own private viewing space, but was able to listen to Brent’s live commentary from the bridge over the TV.

I was in an Aqua Class® stateroom, but there are plenty of categories to choose from on Solstice and of course ROL’s cruise experts can help tell me it was Flame and she had first been seen in these waters 2007.

After a quick detour to see a noisy colony of sea lions, we headed back to dry land for a walk through the rainforest to view the spectacular Mendenhall Glacier. It’s one of 38 glaciers that flows off the huge Juneau icefield, which is about the size of Sussex.

Earlier this year I asked Ben how he had picked his Grand Adventures and he said he wanted to offer experiences that people would always remember. If mine are anything to go by, he has certainly achieved that.

WHAT TO DO DURING YOUR TWO NIGHT 4★ LUXURY HOTEL STAYS

Dubai, U.A.E.

If you have never been to Dubai, it's time to prepare for a whole new experience. Two nights in this thriving city will only scrape the surface of the cultural delights on offer, so be sure to make the most of it. Marvel at the ambitious and awe-inspiring architectural projects, from the palm tree shaped islands that stretch into the Arabian Sea, to the Burj al Khalif – the tallest building in the world.

Long before oil, Dubai's wealth was originally built on the pearl fishing industry and it is still a great place to buy pearls, giving you an excuse to spend some happy hours in one of Dubai's grand shopping malls! The ancient culture is never far from the surface and you will find mosques, temples and serene gardens to bring peace and balance to your Dubai experience.

Singapore

Singapore has become confident in its status as an up-and-coming destination. This is evident in everything from the supersize shopping malls and hotels to the ultra-modern cocktail and cuisine scene. Contrast this with the many street markets and temples, and you're close to pinpointing the epicentre of Singapore's charm – its contrasts.

It might not be the first place you'd expect to find nature at its best, for instance, but Singapore (nicknamed "city in a garden") is home to a number of unexpected natural wonders. Just a short bus ride out of the city, for example, you'll find ancient rainforests teeming with wildlife. Within the city itself are magnificent botanical gardens where you can relax in 74 hectares of tamed wilderness. We recommend the beautiful Orchid Garden.

Celebrity Cruises® and Reader Offers Limited Package Holiday booking conditions apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions.

— THE EXCLUSIVE — ROL CRUISE SHOW WAS A SUCCESS!

In mid-August, we were thrilled to bring together many leading cruise lines and guests for a packed two-day event at Braxted Park Estate in Essex. More than 1,000 people attended the first Exclusive ROL Cruise Show as we showcased a wide array of 2018, 2019 and 2020 cruise itineraries, ships and packages to those new to cruise travel, as well as seasoned cruising enthusiasts.

Jennie Bond, journalist, Royal Broadcaster and ROL Cruise Ambassador was present at the show and spoke extensively about her experiences when reporting on the Royal family during her time as a BBC correspondent, she also spoke fondly of her travels across various oceans and rivers around the world to a packed audience on both days of the event.

Talking of the event, visiting guest Peter Nash from Braintree said: “I thought the organisation was first class and a real pleasure to attend a function without complaints! The staff were well organised, polite and knowledgeable. What a difference in this day and age.”

Sarah Wikevand, MD of ROL Cruise said: “The Exclusive ROL Cruise Show was a fabulous opportunity for people to meet representatives from many of the leading cruise lines in one place. If you wanted to find out anything related to cruise holidays, this was the place to be. The talks and presentations offering advice on the cruise lines, itineraries and ships were extremely popular, and we certainly saw an interest in all types of cruises, including European and Far East river cruises, Caribbean and Mediterranean itineraries, plus the ever-popular Northern Lights cruising experiences.

“Guests also enjoyed the opportunity to meet our friendly team to discuss the many cruise options available, all in the beautiful surroundings of the Braxted Park Estate. I would like to personally extend our thanks to everyone who took part in the show – our guests, cruise line partners, Mr. Wheeler wines and also to the Braxted Park team for ensuring the event ran as smoothly as possible.”

The Exclusive ROL Cruise Show will return in 2019 and details of the event will be announced in the New Year!

AUGUST 2019

- Mon 5 Fly from London to Reykjavik, Iceland[†]. Upon arrival, transfer to a hotel[†] for your overnight stay
- Tue 6 Reykjavik, Iceland ★Full day Golden Circle tour★★
The Golden Circle consists of three iconic locations in southwest Iceland: Þingvellir National Park, the Geysir Geothermal Area and Gullfoss Waterfall. Today, you will be able to enjoy a full day tour of these spectacular areas of Iceland, including a dip in the secret lagoon, a natural hot spring. Later, transfer to the port and embark the brand new MS Roald Amundsen for your 14 night voyage to Iceland & Greenland during her maiden season
- Wed 7 Heimaey, Iceland
Heimaey, or "Home Island" welcomes you for your first landing. The harbour has a very narrow entrance, caused by a volcanic eruption in 1973. As the lava flow threatened to completely close the haven, the ingenious islanders pumped thousands of litres of sea water to cool and slow the progress of the molten rocks. Here, you can hope to see some of the eight million colourful puffins that return to the island each summer to breed
- Thu 8 Cruising the Denmark Strait
This crossing was used by the Vikings to migrate from Iceland to South Greenland some 1,000 years ago
- Fri 9 Umivik, Greenland
History and scenery combine to make today special! Umivik Bay is fringed by glaciers which calve their icebergs into the sea. On the northern shore of the bay are two abandoned settlements: little remains today. Your landing here takes place 131 years (almost to the day!) after Nansen stepped ashore in this bay to begin his pioneering crossing of the Greenland icecap
- Sat 10 Skjoldungen, Greenland
Skjoldungen Island has been carved from Greenland by mighty glaciers, which you can see as you enjoy a cruise through the deep fjords. Stare up at the steep rock cliffs, rising to the magnificent peak of Azimuthbjerg over 1,700 metres high at the north west point of the island
- Sun 11 ★Exploration Day★
Your Captain and Expedition Leader will be on the lookout for opportunities today: nature will dictate your activity programme. It may be possible to land at Igdlukulik in Lindenow fjord or take a cruise among the icebergs
- Mon 12 Cruising Prince Christian Sound
Prince Christian Sound separates mainland Greenland with Sangmissoq and other islands of the Cape Farewell Archipelago. As you sail through this narrow channel, enjoy the spectacular scenery here
- Tue 13 Uunartoq, Greenland
This small island is blessed with hot springs set in a completely natural environment, in the middle of a grassy field, surrounded by mountain peaks and drifting icebergs. Soak in the warm water and enjoy the beautiful natural surroundings
- Wed 14 Qassiarsuk, Greenland
Qassiarsuk is where Viking Erik the Red built his Brattahlíð estate in 982 A.D. Join a guided walk through the settlement, where you will learn more about the history of the region. You can visit the reconstruction of Erik's longhouse and the church that Erik's wife Tjodhildur made him build
- Thu 15 Igaliku – Hvalsey, Greenland
Igaliku is one of the most beautiful villages in Greenland. This is the oldest sheep farming settlement on the island and the 27 inhabitants are very proud of their community and are eager to guide you through the village. In Hvalsey, you will find some of the best-preserved ruins from the Norse period including Hvalsey Church
- Fri 16 Ivittuut, Greenland
More than a thousand years ago, Vikings settled this area with about 20 farms and it is now a stronghold for Musk Oxen
- Sat 17 Nuuk, Greenland
Nuuk is the oldest town in Greenland and is situated at the mouth of one of the largest and most spectacular fjord systems in the world
- Sun 18 Kapisillit – Cruising Nuuk Fjord
Kapisillit, which means Salmon in Greenlandic, is a small settlement of just under 100 people at the head of the Nuuk fjord. The real attraction today is the cruise journey along the fjord
- Mon 19 Maniitsoq, Greenland
Since Maniitsoq is situated in an archipelago, intersected by small natural canals, the locals have dubbed the town the "Venice of Greenland". In the waters nearby, humpback whales may show off their aerial acrobatics
- Tue 20 Kangerlussuaq, Greenland
Disembark and enjoy a final excursion towards the Greenland Ice Sheet before enjoying a BBQ meal this evening. Then, transfer to the airport for your flight to Copenhagen
- Wed 21 Copenhagen, Denmark
Upon arrival, take a short walk to the airport hotel[†] for your overnight stay and spend the rest of today at your leisure
- Thu 22 Copenhagen, Denmark

WOK-TOSSED Crab in Sate Sauce

Visit Vietnam and you won't fail to notice the central role food plays in Vietnamese culture. Recipes are handed down through generations and mealtimes are always a family affair. Ingredients are bought and prepared fresh from the local market, a ritual you will witness daily if you travel with APT on a Mekong river cruise holiday. APT's ambassador, celebrity chef, TV personality and author Luke Nguyen created the delicious Wok-tossed Crab in Sate Sauce below so that you can add some Vietnamese flavour to your life...

INGREDIENTS

Crab Ingredients:

- 2 crabs, 400g each
- Vegetable oil
- Cornflour for dusting
- 3 red shallots, finely diced
- 2 garlic cloves, finely diced
- 4 tbsp Sate sauce
- 3 spring onions, cut into 5cm lengths
- 2 long red chillies, thinly diagonally sliced

Sate Sauce:

- 100g dried shrimp
- 500ml vegetable oil
- ½ garlic bulb, crushed
- 10 sliced spring onions (white part)
- ¼ tsp chilli flakes
- 200g crabmeat
- 2tsp sugar
- 1tbsp oyster sauce
- 1tsp sea salt
- 2tsp fish sauce
- 100ml chilli oil

METHOD

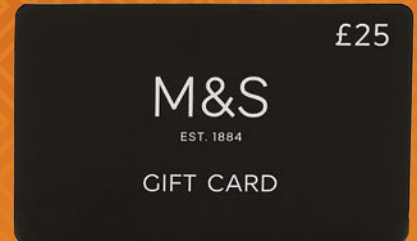

For the sauce:

- 1) Soak the dried shrimp in 250ml water for 20 minutes. Drain.
- 2) Pour the oil into a wok on a medium heat. Fry the garlic and spring onion for two minutes. Add the chilli flakes, crabmeat, dried shrimp, sugar, oyster sauce, salt and fish sauce. Stir together, reduce the heat to a low simmer.
- 3) Cook for 30 minutes, stirring every five minutes. Stir in the chilli oil and simmer for a further five minutes.

For the dish:

- 1) Ask your fishmonger to prepare your crab. You want to extract the meat from the claws and have around eight pieces from the main body of each.
- 2) Half-fill a large wok or deep saucepan with oil and heat to 200°C.
- 3) Dust the crab pieces with the cornflour and deep-fry in batches for three minutes, turning once, until golden brown. Remove from the wok and drain on paper towels.
- 4) Remove the oil, reserving two tablespoons, and clean out the wok.
- 5) Heat the reserved oil in the wok, then add the shallot and garlic and fry over medium heat for one minute, or until fragrant.
- 6) Add the sate sauce and stir for one minute. Add the crab and spring onions and toss, making sure to coat the crab well.
- 7) Serve with steamed jasmine rice and finger bowls.
