AN
ROL CRUISE
EXCLUSIVE

Jennie Bond, TV Presenter,
Royal Broadcaster,
Journalist & ROL Cruise
Ambassador speaks to us about why Cunard are her cruise line of choice when it comes to traditional cruising...

An Exclusive ROL Cruise Q&A with Jennie Bond

1 Hi Jennie! Can you describe the unique details of the Cunard experience and what you think makes them so special?

Hello, of course! There is something very special about stepping on board one of the Cunard "Queens". Members of the crew are lined up to greet you, there is an immediate sense of elegance, space and luxury, and we all seem to let out a collective sigh of contentment. For my husband Jim and I, it's rather like coming home. We have been voyaging with Cunard for about 20 years and we are still like a couple of kids when we take that first sip of champagne on the balcony of our stateroom.

2 Which is your favourite Cunard Queen and why?

We love all three ships. We are particularly partial to the two smaller ones, Victoria and Elizabeth, but Queen Mary 2 is wonderfully grand in every way! You can certainly do your 10,000 steps a day simply by walking to and from your stateroom a few times!

3 Cunard are famed for their White Star Service, what are your experiences of this?

The White Star Service means that the staff on board are trained to look after you in a way that exceeds your expectations. And they all do it with a smile. From your butler to your waiter, your sommelier to the entertainment team, the crew seem to be on a mission to make you feel pampered. And they are very successful. Nothing is too much trouble. You can breakfast in your PJs on the balcony, you can enjoy tea and dainty sandwiches brought to you as you laze in the comfort of your poolside sun lounger, you can learn to paint or play bridge or dance the tango – everything seems possible!

4 What can guests expect from the cuisine on board?

We have always found the food on board to be first class. The main restaurants are extremely elegant and the menus are extensive without being overwhelming. In the top grade Grill restaurants, you are treated like royalty. You can sit at tables for two, or in a group, and eat whenever you like within the opening hours. And if you fancy something special that's not on the menu that day, you only have to ask and they will do everything possible to provide it.

5 What can guests expect from the Expert Guest Lecturers?

I probably shouldn't say this, as I lecture about royalty, but Cunard pride themselves on the expertise of their lecturers and the broad range of topics they cover. There is always a "celebrity" lecturer on board – often, like me, from the world of television – but there are also historians, authors, explorers, scientists and experts who know all about the ports of call. If sitting by the pool isn't for you, then you can expand your horizons every day and end the voyage with a wealth of knowledge gathered along the way.

6 Grill Suites provide access to exclusive areas on board the ship, can you speak a bit about this and the benefits of booking a higher grade?

I think any Cunard voyage is a wonderful, elegant experience but of course the Grill Suites offer even more luxury and personal service. The staterooms are larger, the balconies bigger, the sun loungers squasher. The Queen's and Princess Grills are in a separate part of the ship, with their own exclusive lounge where delicious canapés are served each evening before dinner. A Queen's Grill Stateroom comes with complimentary spirits and wine to enjoy on your balcony. I particularly like the space and comfort of the two outdoor decks assigned for Grill guests, and, in the restaurant, the theatre of watching your Maître d' cook delicious dishes right beside your table. The flames from the Duck à l'Orange or the Crepes Suzette always add a little drama to the meal!

'There is something impossibly romantic about dancing to a live band in a grand ballroom as you sail across the Atlantic.'

7 Have you experienced a Transatlantic voyage with Cunard? If so, what did you enjoy the most? If not, what appeals to you about embarking on one?

Yes, we crossed the Atlantic on the old QE2 and have also made the voyage on Queen Mary. It takes six days and is a unique experience. This is where Cunard's comprehensive and varied entertainment programme makes all the difference. There is so much to do on board that your days can be as busy or as relaxing as you want. Being at sea for nearly a week creates a different atmosphere: a feeling of real camaraderie; it's as if you're all enjoying a huge house party, miles from civilisation, seemingly alone on the high seas. There is something impossibly romantic about dancing to a live band in a grand ballroom as you sail across the Atlantic.

8 Cunard offer exceptional 'Signature Cunard Experiences', do you have any stand-out moments from your time on board?

There have been so many magical moments. Perhaps one of the most memorable was sailing past the tiny island of Stromboli, off the coast of Sicily, with its volcano glowing red in the night sky following a recent eruption. It was an eerie sight.

9 Customers may be suffering under the misconception that Cunard are 'stuffy' and 'too formal', how would you dispel these rumours?

Well, I spend most of my days in a pair of shorts or a swimsuit. Nothing too stuffy about that! In the evenings, people do dress up a bit, but there are only two or three formal evenings on an average voyage. The rules have been relaxed so men can wear a lounge suit instead of a tuxedo on those evenings, and on other nights they don't even have to wear a tie. I find most of us women rather enjoy the chance to glam up, but as long as you look presentable, no-one is going to fuss. And if you prefer to stay in your shorts, you can always eat in the Lido. Sometimes, Jim and I just relax in our stateroom and ask our butler to bring dinner to us on the balcony. Pure indulgence!

10 What do you think are the benefits of booking a Cunard voyage with ROL Cruise?

In my experience, the ROL Cruise team strive to book you on a cruise that will take you to unforgettable destinations... and there are many extra benefits too. ROL work closely with Cunard, so you can be sure you have a team of experts who know and understand every detail of the cruise line and all it has to offer. Not only this, but with an in-house team creating Signature Experiences, ROL Cruise can put together a series of astounding tailor-made packages, often in partnership with Cunard, which will give you exclusive benefits – from chauffeur services and on board spending money, to hotel stays and flight packages tailored to you.

Introducing the stunning Emerald Harmony... Unlike any other similar-sized ships, Emerald Harmony will sail into the centre of Ho Chi Minh City, allowing you to dock in the heart of this fantastic city, so that you are in the midst of the excitement as soon as you step ashore.

SUMPTUOUS SUITES

Every one of Emerald Harmony's suites and staterooms are chic, modern sanctuaries fusing authentic Asian style with contemporary design. LOTUS LOUNGE

On board, Emerald Waterways have introduced the Lotus Lounge, where dark wooden tones and muted colours relax you as you sail towards your next destination. MUSIC and Majesty on the Danube

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

Mozart & Strauss Concert Palais Liechtenstein

There are two things you have to do when visiting Vienna. The first is to visit a local restaurant for a Wiener Schnitzel; a pork or veal cutlet breaded and served with potato salad or fries. The second is to attend a Mozart and Strauss concert in one of the city's palaces.

I've ticked off the first and now I am sitting in the ballroom of the magnificent Liechtenstein City Palace, listening as an orchestra plays waltzes, polkas and the stirring Radetzky March, while admiring the seriously-opulent gold leaf and stucco on the walls and ceiling all around me.

The evening is just one of several special highlights of this river cruise I'm on – a 15 day Magnificent Europe cruise from Budapest to Amsterdam on APT's river cruise ship AmaBella.

Still to come is an excursion to Salzburg on the Majestic Imperator, a replica of a train built back in the 1800s for Emperor Franz-Joseph, the ruler of the vast Austro-Hungarian Empire, and his wife, the Empress Elisabeth.

It was a journey fit for a king, with red carpets,

Grand Empress Steam Train

sparkling wine and carriages decorated with inlaid wood panels, drapes, upholstered chairs and thick carpets – but I'm afraid you'll have to be quick to experience it because the Emperor will be replaced next year with a day out on the Grand Empress Steam Train from Budapest.

The Grand Empress Steam Train, available from April to September, promises to be at least as grand. It is named in honour of Empress Elisabeth and will take passengers to Gödöllő Palace, one of her favourite residences, gifted to her and her husband when they were crowned King and Queen of Hungary. The journey there takes just under two hours so there's time for a three-course lunch with wine on board. You'll find more information about it elsewhere in this month's edition of Blue Horizons.

Budapest, where my cruise began, is truly grand, boasting the oldest underground railway in Europe after London, the largest Jewish synagogue in Europe and the third-largest parliament building in the world (it is trumped by the Palace of the Parliament in Bucharest and the Palace of Westminster in London).

The first time I visited it was still under Communist rule and very grey and unloved. Restaurants had tempting menus but no food and the streets were empty. Now it is buzzing with people, cars, restaurants and cafés serving everything from burgers to tasty Hungarian goulash.

A morning tour took us past the synagogue and parliament, and stopped at Heroes Square, built in 1896 to mark Hungary's 1,000th Anniversary, and Fisherman's Bastion, a lookout spot with great views of the river below.

From Budapest we set sail for Vienna, the city from where Emperor Franz-Joseph and his Habsburg ancestors once ruled their vast empire. It is also one of my favourite cities, a joyous place to see everything from opulent palaces and elegant coffee houses to priceless art collections and the white Lipizzaner horses.

One of the lovely things about cruising with APT, is that as well as including all excursions in the cost of the cruise, there is a choice of tours most days so you can dip in and out of what appeals without worrying about the budget. Fares also include flights and transfers, gratuities, Wi-Fi and all meals on board.

On AmaBella, one of four APT river ships sailing the Magnificent Europe cruise next year, the main restaurant is divided into two sections each evening, with an international menu served on one side and an Italian-themed choice of dishes on the other. There is also a speciality restaurant, Chef's Table, with seating for up to 24 diners, at the back.

We all went to the Mozart and Strauss concert during an overnight stay in Vienna but the next day, while I opted for a tour to the Spanish Riding School, others took an excursion to Schönbrunn Palace, the summer home of the Habsburgs, and others still headed out of the city to Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia.

This really turned out to be the cruise that never stops giving. Over the course of two weeks we sailed on four waterways (the Danube, Main-Danube Canal, Main River and Rhine), transited the picturesque Wachau Valley and Rhine Gorge, sailed over the Franconian Alps and negotiated 68 locks.

We visited opulent abbeys, palaces and medieval towns, saw the chilling Nazi parade grounds in Nuremberg, met a real German princess, Heide von Hohenzollern, in her very own castle and learnt about canals, clogs and windmills in the Netherlands.

From Deggendorf, I joined guide Sylvia for a tour around the medieval centre of Regensburg, one of the few towns to escape the Second World War bombings as there was no industry there to destroy.

It's a lovely town, with narrow medieval streets, towers built by wealthy individuals for no reason other than to show off just how rich they were (the higher the tower, the wealthier you were), and the oldest sausage kitchen in the world, which is my top recommendation for a bratwurst and beer at lunchtime.

The city also has a beautiful 12th century stone bridge that is still intact today. According to legend, the stonemason made a bet with his counterpart building the cathedral that he would finish first but when it looked like he might lose, he appealed to the devil for help to win the wager. In return, he agreed with the devil that he could take the first three souls to cross the bridge.

It actually took just 11 years to build, which was incredibly quick (especially given a renovation has just taken seven years!), but not fast enough and the stonemason lost the bet. However, he came up with a cunning plan to foil the devil, shoeing a hen, rooster and dog across the bridge ahead of any people. I guess you could say the devil had been, cluckolded.

Transfer to the port and embark MS Fram for your 12 night expedition voyage

SEPTEMBER 2019

- Sun 1 Gjøa Haven, Canada
 Gjøa Haven is a popular destination for fans of Arctic history. The name honours the Norwegian explorer Roald Amundsen, who, with his men, spent two years at Gjøa Haven collecting scientific data, hunting caribou and exploring the surrounding area. When Amundsen arrived there was no European settlement here, but he was in contact with the local Inuit and learned a lot from them about survival and travel in polar regions

Also called 'Mittimatalik' in Inuktitut, this traditional Inuit community is surrounded by mountain ranges, with several dozen glaciers, scenic fjords and inlets. This is where the search for high Arctic wildlife, such as polar bears, can begin. Pond Inlet is also a great place to see large pods of narwhal, signalling the start of your Arctic safari. Ashore, a cultural performance by the local community will be a highlight
- Sun 8 - Mon 9 Crossing the Davis Strait
 This strait was named for the English explorer John Davis, who led three expeditions in the area between 1585 and 1587
- Tue 10 Ilulissat, Greenland
 The name Ilulissat literally means 'icebergs' and the reason for this becomes clear on approach to the town. The glacier at the head of the icefjord is the most productive in the northern hemisphere, calving icebergs on a massive scale. These icebergs then make their way down the 20km fjord before entering Disko Bay. Enjoy a variety of options to view the icefjord
- Wed 11 Sisimiut, Greenland
 En route to Sisimiut, make sure you're out on deck to scout for whales. The waters close to the settlement are frequented by several species, such as humpback and fin whales. Harbour porpoise and minke whales can be encountered along the west coast of Greenland. If you're lucky, you may also see large numbers of seals, the most common being the harp seal. Ashore, visit the small museum, hike in the hills and shop for local handicrafts. Just across Disko Bay is Disko Island and settlement Qeqertarsuaq
- Thu 12 Kangerlussuaq, Greenland – Copenhagen, Denmark

Tiger in Ranthambore National Park, India

There are few destinations in the world that are more mystical, culturally diverse or rich in heritage than India. American Author Mark Twain expressed that “India is the cradle of the human race, the birthplace of human speech, the mother of history, the grandmother of legend, and the great-grandmother of tradition.” India, spoken about here with such honour, is a curious place in the world, and one that many desire to explore. With this exclusive ROL Cruise Signature Experience, you can delve into India’s Golden Triangle and enjoy the once-in-a-lifetime chance to go in search of the mighty Bengal tiger in Ranthambore National Park. Concluding with an all-inclusive 5★ luxury cruise of Arabia, this is one exclusive package not to be missed...

INDIA'S GOLDEN TRIANGLE

India's Golden Triangle comprises of the three most visited cities in the country's north-west – Delhi, Agra and Jaipur. Your exclusive Wendy Wu tour takes you to all three cities and enables you to explore the wealth of culture and historical splendour on offer. In Delhi, be welcomed to India by the bustle of local bazaars and a unique rickshaw ride through Chadni Chowk; in Agra, visit the iconic Agra Fort and in Jaipur, enjoy the unique opportunity to view the Taj Mahal in all its glory as the sun rises.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK

The second part of your ROL Cruise Signature Experience takes you to Ranthambore National Park, one of the biggest and most renowned national parks in Northern India, where you will enjoy a two night stay. Considered one of the most famous and former hunting grounds of the Maharajas of Jaipur, today the Ranthambore National Park is a major wildlife hotspot, with endless chances to spot the majestic Bengal tiger in its natural habitat. Ranthambore is also home to a number of ancient ruins including the Raj Bagh Ruins and Ranthambore Fort. The stories and life histories of the Royal Bengal tigers will compel you to want to learn more about these imperial creatures.

DISCOVER EASTER ISLAND

THE MOAI ORIGINS

The UNESCO World Heritage Site of Rano Raraku is a volcanic quarry where most of the island's iconic Moai were created. Marvel at these huge basalt monoliths as you walk amongst hundreds of specimens in various stages of completion. Some stand proud at four metres tall, others are unfinished and abandoned, while the 21-metre El Gigante lies where it was carved, most likely too heavy to lift. See where archaeologists have transformed protruding heads by uncovering their buried bodies, then admire Tukuturi, the island's only kneeling statue.

VOLCANOES & BIRDMEN

On the southwest tip of the island is Rano Kau, an extinct volcano filled with a freshwater lake. Walk around much of the mile-wide crater for outstanding views, both out to sea and into its dramatic flora-lined caldera. At the point where its slopes meet the cliff edge, explore the archaeological ruins of the Orongo ceremonial village. During the 18th and 19th centuries, the 53 windowless stone houses were home to the Tangata Manu (birdmen) who competed annually to retrieve a tern egg from nearby Motu Nui islet. Numerous petroglyphs carved into the rocks are thought to celebrate its winners.

Paths lead around the volcano's slopes, where hundreds of statues still lie scattered in various stages of completion. The tour will finish with a stop at the beautiful Anakena beach, the site where King Hotu Matu'a first landed, accompanied by the early Polynesian settlers (B, L, D)
- Fri 13 Easter Island, Chile
Enjoy a full day excursion to Ahu Akivi, Puna Pau Quarry, Orongo and the Rano Kau Volcano*. Ahu Akivi is one of the few platforms not located by the coast and the Puna Pau Quarry is where the red stone headdresses that were fixed on top of the Moai were quarried. Rano Kau is a dormant volcano at the southern tip of the island. Nearby is the ceremonial village of Orongo, located on a narrow ridge between the deep crater on one side and a 1,000 foot drop into the ocean on the other. Learn about the Birdman Cult, which emerged after the collapse of the Moai culture (B, D)

CELEBRATE CHINESE NEW YEAR IN Shanghai

Also known as the Spring Festival, Chinese New Year is the equivalent of Christmas. It's all about family, fireworks, gifts of money and a feast of dumplings!

Shanghai is one of the greatest places to experience Chinese New Year. Local people gather near the Longhua Temple to hear the famous bell strike 108 times – a symbolic number believed to bring luck and prosperity. This is followed by incredible Chinese folk dances and, of course, renowned Chinese fireworks.

Take your place on either bank of the Huangpu River for the main celebrations. Wish your neighbours good fortune, light a lantern and watch the incredible fireworks display.

CRUISE MILES TIPS

- Remember to ask your Cruise Consultant what your Cruise Miles are worth – you can save money every time you book.
- For every pound you spend with ROL Cruise you will earn one Cruise Mile. Many of our customers have enjoyed a cruise for next to nothing by accumulating their Cruise Miles for a significant saving.
- Don't worry if you have recently made a new cruise booking with us. Your Cruise Miles will have been automatically credited to your account, ready for you to use in future.

Our rewards programme, Cruise Miles, is endorsed by all these major cruise lines and more...

5 WAYS YOU CAN USE YOUR CRUISE MILES

1. Save money on future cruise bookings by redeeming your Cruise Miles to help pay for your holiday!
2. Enhance your cruise ahead of time and use your Cruise Miles to upgrade your cabin or suite.
3. Choose to arrive for your cruise refreshed and ready to go, by using your Cruise Miles towards the cost of a pre-cruise hotel stay with one of our preferred partners; it could cost you absolutely nothing.
4. Take the hassle out of your pre-cruise journey and redeem your Cruise Miles to use for car parking at the port.
5. Choose to save up your Cruise Miles and use them to pay for a whole cruise holiday in the future – everyone likes something for free and this could be your chance!

CHOCOLATE & RAISIN BREAD

with Whisky Sauce

A stunning dish created by Holland America Line's Master Chef, Rudi Sodamin, this delicious Chocolate & Raisin Bread Pudding with Whisky Sauce is the perfect finale to any dinner party – although it can equally be enjoyed as a sinful treat, straight from the oven. You can be sure that your tastebuds are in safe hands with this original Rudi Sodamin creation – described as an icon in the cruise industry for his culinary talent and creativity in the kitchen.

INGREDIENTS

Whisky Sauce:

- 1 1/2 cups heavy cream
- 2 teaspoons cornstarch
- 1 tablespoon cold water
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons whisky, such as Jack Daniels, Jameson or Old Bushmills

Bread Pudding:

- 1/2 cup golden raisins
- 2 tablespoons whisky (for soaking the raisins; optional)
- 1 pound loaf day-old Italian bread, cut into 1 inch cubes
- 1/2 cup chocolate chips
- 6 large eggs
- 2 pints whole milk
- 1 cup sugar
- 3 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa powder, sifted
- 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

METHOD

Whisky Sauce:

1. In a heavy saucepan, heat the cream over a medium heat until it boils. In a small bowl, whisk the cornstarch and water; whisk this mixture into the boiling cream.

2. Return the cream to the boil then reduce the heat to low and cook, stirring for 30 seconds, taking care not to let the mixture burn. Add the sugar and whisky and stir until the sugar is dissolved. Immediately remove from the heat and let cool to room temperature. Cover and store in the refrigerator until ready to use. Reheat before serving.

Bread Pudding:

1. Heat the oven to 350°F/180°C. Grease a 12 case muffin tin. Combine the raisins and whisky in a small bowl; let sit for at least 15 minutes.
2. Bring a large kettle of water to the boil. Drain the raisins and discard the liquid. Divide the bread, chocolate chips, and drained raisins among the muffin cups.
3. In a large bowl, combine the eggs, milk, sugar, cocoa powder, vanilla, and salt. Whisk to blend thoroughly.
4. Pour the egg mixture over the bread in each of the muffin cups and place the pan in a large roasting pan.
5. Transfer the roasting pan to the oven and add enough boiling water to the large pan to reach halfway up the side of the muffin tray.
6. Bake the puddings for 30 to 40 minutes or until puffed and just set.
7. Once cooked, let the bread pudding cool until warm and serve with the whisky sauce, whipped cream and vanilla ice cream.
